STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

The Journal says the report is being vigorously circulated in some parts of the State, that there are cases of small pox in Lewiston. There have been none for several years. When cases do occur the disease is stamped out so quickly that no one need have fears of trouble in that respect at any time.

The Journal says: Conductor Pratt, of the Grand Trunk, a few days ago, just after leaving Mechanic Falls, saw hanging by his hands to the forward step rail of a car, a young man of about twenty-three. He had no hold save with his hands, and his feet were dragging on the ground and swinging at times as the car swayed, almost under the wheels. Fearing that if he stopped to get help the young man might lose his hold and fall under the wheels, Conductor Pratt ran down to the lower step, seized him by the shoulders, lifted him upon the step, and dragged him upon the platform. He was a French Canadian.

Aroostook.

The North Star says the Maine Board of Agriculture will hold a session at Fort Fairfield, Friday, Nov. 25th.

Cumberland.

S. D. Warren & Co., of Cumberland Mills, have recently filled a one hundred ton order for postal card stock, and have within a few days, received another order for two hundred tons.

James Libby, a young man residing near the Western Promenade, accidently shot himself through the hand with a revolver, a day or two since.

Franklin.

The Record notes the high price of potatoes and apples in Franklin county. Winter apples fit for barreling have mostly been sold at good prices, and what remains are in prospect waiting for rising prices. The canning establishments are working up all the cans that can be found or manufactured, in preserving apples that are not salable for export. Considerable quantities of vinegar will be made from apples exposed to freezing up for the winter, from which the juice will be pressed in the spring. Another source of agricultural profit is the marketing of pumpkins through the medium of canning operations.

Kennebec.

The Journal says that little industries are springing up in Augusta quite numerously. A few weeks ago A. W. Greeley, an enterprising young man, started the manufacture of paper boxes on Cushing street. He now employs five persons, and is overwhelmed with orders. Numerous spring industries added to large manufacturing operations will make any place a bee hive.

Gardiner has been visited by a party of robbers recently, who have been helping themselves quite freely.

Saturday evening the posts of the new telegraph line were set half way from Augusta to the China line. Tals week if weather is favorable, the work will be extended to South China or perhaps to Liberty.

Penobscot.

The Southtest says before many weeks the suit of the Dexter Savings Bank against the Barron estate will be renewed and will doubtless bring afresh to the minds of the people all the sad particulars of the tragedy. In May, 1880, action was brought against the estate by the Bank to recover the amount of the deficiencies which the book showed. At the January term of the court, by mutual agreement of both parties, the case will be brought up and doubtless auditors will be appointed to make a thorough and systematic examination of the accounts. The result of this investigation will be eagerly awaited, as it will doubtless be impartial and will determine to a great extent the final decision of the case.

Sagadahoc.

The Times says that there has been found on the land of Loring S. Webber, at Small Point, Phipsburg, large deposits of mica. We understand he has been offered five thousand dollars for the deposit, and refuses to accept it.

Somerset.

The Sentinel says that L. B. Paine, of Waterville, has purchased the fine farm in Fairfield, formerly owned and carried on by Mr. Ball C. Burleigh, the well-known breeder and importer of stock. The farm Mr. P. has bought is about four miles from Waterville, and the same distance from Fairfield and West Waterville. It now cuts over sixty tons of hay, and Mr. Paine proposes to give more attention to the raising of cattle and sheep than to the tilling of the soil.

Waldo.

The Grange council for Waldo County came off at Monroe village on Tuesday of last week. There was a large attendance.

Washington.

An exchange says the sea serpent has appeared again. It was in the Machias Chain Lake, and Mr. Eb. Hall, of Calais, was the individual who met with the encounter. It was broad daylight, 11 o'clock A. M., the hour, when he beheld the spectacle, and of course he cannot be mistaken. He and another logger were on the shore of the lake when the serpent came round a point at great speed, and, with his head six feet in the air, bore down upon them. When very close to Mr. Hall and his terror-stricken companion the monster, on account of shallow water or another cause, suddenly turned and went down the lake and through the thoroughfare "like a steamboat," leaving a great wake behind. The serpent, according to Mr. Hall and his fellow witness, was as "big round as a pork barrel," not less than fifty feet long, and measured at least two feet across the head. Immense scales covered his back, which at one time appeared above the water.

York.

The Argus says that Sunday night a man named Johnson, of Buxton, was driving home his cows, but one of them did not move quick enough to suit him. In attempting to hurry the beast, he hurled a piece of pointed wood, and unfortunately it entered the part between the loins, and the cow died in a few minutes. She was valued at $50.

The Prince of Wales has secured a place in history by designing a new plaid in green, red, and white, and his wife and daughters, proud of the achievement, wear suits made of the plaid.

Erastus Corning Smith, of Albany, who left Mile Island, Lake George, for Glens Falls on the 14th of October, has not been heard from since. He had a large amount of money in his possession.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A western pastor declined an addition of $100 to his salary, for the reason, among others, that the hardest part of his labors heretofore had been the collection of his salary, and it would kill him to try to collect $100 more.

At a recent fashionable wedding, the chime bell-ringer was requested to play something lively as the contracting parties were entering the church. Imagine their surprise when the bells sent forth, "The Torpedo and the Whale."

Mr. Clarence H. Clark has retired from the firm of E. W. Clark & Co., of Philadelphia, and will probably give up business altogether. He has saved up the comfortable sum of $4,000,000 with which to keep the wolf from the door.

When Edward Atkinson and his party of New England cotton manufacturers visited the Atlanta (Ga.) Colored University the other day a member of the party suggested a contribution to the incidental expenses of the institution, and $650 were at once subscribed.

It is thought that the photograph which Mrs. Garfield will select to send Queen Victoria will be one which was taken in Painesville, Ohio, by a country artist, but which all his friends who have seen it think the best likeness taken of the late President.

They who picture Queen Victoria in their mind's eye as clad in a robe of crimson with a gold crown upon her head will be shocked to learn that she takes her daily drive at Balmoral with a black straw bonnet upon her head, and with a large shawl of small check shepherd's plaid upon her shoulders.

The City Council and Cotton Exchange of Selma have united in an invitation to Mr. Edward Atkinson and party from New England, who are now in Atlanta, to visit that city, the centre of the cotton belt and of the mineral and mining interests of the State. Extensive preparations are being made for their entertainment.

Mr. Algernon Sartoris and his wife, the daughter of ex-President Grant, arrived in New York City Saturday on the German steamer Elbe which left Southampton on the 27th ult. Of their three children, they brought two, the youngest being left at their home in England. On their arrival they were driven at once to the new residence of General Grant.

Mrs. John K. Abbott, of West Concord, N. H., used to extend the hospitalities of her unpretentious home to a Boston relative, and by the death of this relative and his wife Mrs. Abbott comes into possession of $28,000, having received a check for that amount. If she survives an adopted daughter of the deceased, relative Mrs. Abbott will get another and larger sum.

The Chicago Tribune says it is learned from a creditable source that Miss Clara Louise Kellogg will, at the conclusion of her present concert engagement, be united in marriage to Mr. Whitney, a wealthy New York gentleman, after which she will leave the stage. The ceremony will, it is stated, occur in Chicago, at the home of one of Miss Kellogg's friends.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

The expectation that the results of the November elections would be "mixed" has not been disappointed; but if neither party found enough in the early returns burn much powder over, it is very certain that the crumbs of comfort for the Democrats have thus far appeared scanty and tough. As we write (Wednesday evening) the result as to the State ticket in New York is still in doubt, with both sides claiming a small margin in the State and in the Legislature. The Democrats have defeated Tom Murphy and Astor in the 9th and 11th Congressional Districts, the former being that represented from time immemorial by Fernando Wood, and the latter having been carried by the Republicans but once in the last decade. But right in the heart of Democracy the Republicans have elected the Surrogate in New York, and across the river the Democratic stronghold of Brooklyn, has been carried by the election of a Republican Mayor.

From Virginia the returns have been vague, but all have indicated heavy Bourbon losses, with indications that they have been defeated both on the State ticket and Legislature.

Connecticut, so long relied upon for Democratic majorities, has re-elected a civilly Republican Legislature.

Massachusetts rolls up 30,000 to 40,000 majority, and Democratic Boston wheels into the Republican line with a handsome plurality for Long.

From Minnesota the telegrams bring news of decisive Republican victory; and even from Wisconsin, where we feared to meet disaster by reason of a diversion of Republican votes the returns indicate that our friends still safely control the State.

And to cap the whole we have the anomaly of a Republican Mayor away down in Texas.

This is emphatically an "off-year" in more senses than one, and we always expect considerable Republican apathy in the canvass next following a Presidential election. Another day will probably be required to gather in the definite results, and if it shall prove that the hitherto ironclad battle-front of the Solid South has been broken by a Democratic defeat in Virginia, that will compensate ten fold for the temporary falling off in majorities elsewhere.

MASSACHUSETTS VALUATION, ETC.

The "Aggregates of Polls, Property, Taxes, etc., as assessed May 1, 1881," compiled by the Secretary of State of Massachusetts has just been issued. The total number of polls in the State is 469,207, being a gain of 16,104 over 1880 and of 50,336 over 1875. The total valuation this year is $1,648,236,076, a gain of $63,183,174 over 1880, and $118,718,052 over 1879, when the valuation was the lowest it has been since 1871. Still the State has not reached the valuation of 1875, when values reached their highest point, the valuation then was $1,840,232,701—nearly $200,000,000 more than at present. While the valuation has increased during the past year, the total tax for State, county, city and town purposes is $14,0,377 less than in 1880, and it is $3 032,436 less than in 1875. Between May, 1880, and May, 1881, there was a gain of 1,036 dwelling houses in the entire State, and, in the same time, a gain of 3,014 horses and 1,050 sheep, but there is a loss of 835 cows.

THE STAR ROUTE CASES.

The Washington correspondent of the noted Journal makes the following statements concerning the Star Route cases, which show that the accused rely upon a technical defence on the ground but what they did was within the "letter" of the law, however much the Government may have been defrauded. The writer says:

The famous Star-Route case is now before the courts here, on a motion to quash the proceedings on the ground, simply speaking, of "no case." The action of the Government in coming into court and filing a bill of information was in order to prevent a defect of the suit by a plea under the statute of limitations, which would have certainly been brought in by the defendants if the case had been delayed until the session of the court in general term. Now, the motion to quash the present proceedings is granted, the case is likely to default; hence the interest excited by the facts in question.

The information filed rests mainly upon the records on file in Congressional Committee rooms, in the post-office department, and upon the sworn affidavits of a few contractors, and more sub-contractors who were interested in these expedited routes. Whether the records on file will be sufficient to convict is a mooted question.

That they have proved that these routes were expedited enormously there is no doubt. That there were many persons who too largely benefited their own pockets by such expedition there is no doubt; and that many of these transactions were barefaced and disgraceful cannot be denied. Still, the chief actors in this post-office drama so adroitly managed the stage (right word in this matter) and arranged the side scenes, that is not impossible, aye, it is probable, that prosecution will fail because, technically construed, these acts were legally sanctioned. In short they were legalized frauds.

These very records now brought up to convict Brady and his confederates, are the very records which Brady desires to use in his defence, as he claims that they show that each and every act now considered fraudulent or unlawful is, by them, proved to have been legal, inasmuch as they were laid before Congress for its action; passed through (pro forma at last) the usual committee examination, and finally were sanctioned by Congress itself.

The only doubt is (and in that doubt exists a hope) whether the prosecution has in its possession better evidence of guilt in and outside of these records that Brady et als., suppose. If, in their search for direct evidence, they have been more fortunate than the legal fraternity believe, all honest men will be rejoiced. But there is the feeling that the evidence, owing to the legalized fraud action, is indirect and hardly cognizable in a court of law. If so, then the present motion will be quashed and, as I previously said, the plea under the Statute of Limitations will follow. Whatever may be the result, the action of Attorney General MacVeagh is, to say the least, discreditable to his reputation as a lawyer, and cowardly as a man.

It seems it has only been by the persistent effort of Postmaster General James and President Arthur himself, that he has been kept, so far, from crawling directly out of his office and letting his subordinates prosecute these most important cases which he was most instrumental in inaugurating and having had published broadcast to the country as indictable and punishable crimes.

The Lowell (Mass.) Courier says: "New England ought to have the Speakership, and she cannot do better than to stand solid for Mr. Reed."

PERSONAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The Northern Pacific Railroad will reach Miles City Nov. 25.

The author of "Wilde, Wilde World" has written another novel.

Myrtle green will be the fashionable color for ladies' dresses this winter.

There are 140 law firms conducted entirely by women in this country.

Additional discoveries of nickel and cobalt have been made in Custer county, Cal.

The United States and Canada have shipped 883,675 barrels of apples to England this fall.

During last week 9778 immigrants landed at New York, against 1990 the corresponding week last year.

Mr. Henry Thayer of Valley Falls, R. I., has gone to superintend the spinning department of a large mill two miles from Montreal.

The oldest Senator is Mr. Morrill, of Vermont, who is seventy-one; the youngest is Mr. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, who is forty years old.

An athletic-looking passenger in a Brooklyn (N. Y.) horse car on Saturday insisted upon the conductor sitting beside him to hear him recite poetry.

The population of British India is, according to the census just completed, 241,377,098; including 123,211,327 males and 118,156,371 females. The increase in ten years was 12,788,005.

A London telegram says: "The headings of the two sections of the railway tunnel, under the river Severn, connecting Monmouth and Gloucestershire, met with only a deviation of three inches.

Both of Queen Isabella's younger daughters are soon to be married—the Infanta Eulalia to an Austrian Archduke, Queen Christina's brother, and the Infanta Maria della Paz to the heir apparent to the Crown of Portugal.

Signor Salvini has not much hope concerning the abilities of the stage heroine of the future. He is described as folding his hands one day and saying: "There never has been but one Rachel, and there never will be another."

Gray squirrel is much more popular in London this season than the white-and black so much seen during the last two or three winters. It has already gone up in price, owing to the great demand for it. Circular cloaks, long jackets and dolmans are lined with it.

The next postal cars to be put on the Lake Shore and New York Central are to bear the names of James G. Blaine, Thomas H. James, Wayne MacVeagh, William H. Hunt, William Windom, Robert T. Lincoln, Richard A. Elmer Frank Hatton and A. D. Hazen.

Another proof of the truth of the popular notion that consultants are exceptionally long-lived is afforded by the circumstance that over $500 is still paid in pensions to servants of Queen Charlotte, who died sixty-three years ago, and $50 to a surviving attendant of George III.

General Grant, being invited by Mr. G. W. Childs to a dinner given to the Farmers' Club of Philadelphia, said in a letter declining the invitation that he would have liked to be present, as the speeches would certainly be short if the speakers confined themselves to their farming experiences.

Six feet tall, broad shoulders, a broad, straight back without the slightest inclination to stoop and tapering toward the waist, a high forehead, blue eyes, prominent brows and cheek bones, a nose like an eagle's beak—such are the physical characteristics of Jesse James, the notorious train robber, outlaw and general devil.

Guiseppe Esposito-Randozzo, the Italian brigand recently captured in New Orleans and extradited, has through attorneys brought a suit against Augusto Castimano, a rich Italian fruit dealer at New Orleans, for the recovery of $10,000 which he alleges he deposited with Castimano for safe keeping, and which he charges the latter has fraudulently appropriated to his own use.

Twin babies born to Mrs. and William H. Chapin, of Gilbert's Mills, Oswego County, during the campaign of last year were named Garfield and Arthur. They are now sturdy, handsome little fellows of precisely the same size and weight, and they resemble each other so perfectly that their mother has to keep a string tied around Little Garfield's waist in order to tell them apart.—Tribune.

An old negro named J. F. Davids, who was recently acquitted of the charge of murder at Abbeville, S. C., has been on the gallows, or at least in sight of them, five times, the Governor having interposed in every instance. The last time Davids was upon the gallows the hoops had been actually adjusted around his neck when a mounted messenger dashed up with a reprieve. The chances are now that he will die in his bed.

Mr. Blaine's physical strength and his ability to endure fatigue were remarkably shown during the visit of the French and German guests in Washington. The Providence Press says that he was most assiduous in entertaining them, keeping late hours and eating rich dinners and going to bed weary and work. Next morning, however, he would appear as fresh as the youngest, and as he accompanied the visitors to places of interest, he seemed to have to make an effort to restrain himself from running up two steps at once.

Among Madame Adelina Patti's costumes prepared for her American tour is an odd one made of chamois plush, brilliant enough to give to the costume the appearance as if it were covered with a sprinkling of silver. The flounces and the bodice are made up with bands of embossed leather of the same tint. The skirt shows a rich application of leather embroidery on plush ground. This costume is decidedly original, and the use of leather for trimmings, especially in combination with plush, proves to be of the most excellent effect. Next is a costume made of dark blue velvet, trimmed with wide bands of chinchilla. A third costume is made of navy blue cloth, trimmed with decorative Santago embroidery, and has facings of seal fur. A costume of the finest black cashmere and French moire is made up with trimmings of silk embroidery, open-worked on cashmere.

To add the last straw to the load of contempt heaped by the Democrats upon their late Greenback allies, even the Boston Globe ridicules them thus:

Weaver is still lecturing on the lost cause of Greenbackism.

A firm of Philadelphia brokers exhibit at Atlanta, a sample of Yankee cotton grown this year in Delaware county, Pa. The experiment with half an acre was so successful that they will plant 300 acres next year.

This is what the Boston Post says of its late ally in Maine: "Solon Chase is to have a new printing office, from which he will issue a red-hot Greenback paper. Solon, unlike the party he professes to support, dies hard."

THE ARMY.

GEN. SHERMAN'S ANNUAL REPORT.

In his annual report to the Secretary of War, General Sherman says:

Our companies are too small for efficient discipline and for economical service. To protect at one time the settlers against the Indians, and again the Indians against the settlers, reinforcements have to be frequently hurried forward from great distances and always at heavy cost for transportation. This, cost in the aggregate will, in my judgment, be more than sufficient to supply an increase of twenty per cent. of private soldiers. All that I would ask for at this time, because I believe this increase will add little, if any, to the annual cost of the army, and yet give great relief to our overtasked soldiers. When the national treasury was poor and loaded with debt, the army endeavored gracefully to submit to overwork, but they now appeal for relief, and I do most earnestly ask the Honorable Secretary of War to apply to Congress to repeal that clause of the existing law which limits the enlisted force of the army to 25,000 men, and to enact that each and every company in the army may be enlisted to at least fifty privates, making sixty-two enlisted men and three officers to each of the 430 companies, thus increasing the army proper to 26,800 enlisted men, which number in practice will probably never exceed 25,000. This should form the combatant force, and as experience and universal practice have demonstrated the necessity for another or non-combatant force, I further urge that special provision be made by law for a total of 3,750 for all purposes, which number, added to the 26,800 before explained, will make a total enlisted force of every nature and kind of 30,446.

Gen. Sherman says many of the fortifications and coast defences now employing the time of the army to the garrison are absolutely of no use present or prospective. He recommends that the whole question of coast defence be submitted to a board of high officers of all arms of service, who shall report to the Secretary of War what coast forts shall be maintained, what sites shall be retained for future use, and what may be absolutely sold. He recommends that a similar commission, to report upon what inland military posts may be advantageously disposed of. The General next discusses, at considerable length, the subject of "military education."

NEW BOOKS RECEIVED.

We have received the following new books from the Publishers, G. P. Putnam's Sons, 27 and 29 West 23d St., New York:

THE VICAR'S PEOPLE, by Geo. Manville Fenn, author of "The Parson o' Dumford." This is one of the "Trans-Atlantic Novels," 461 pages, in paper covers, price 60 cents; cloth $1 00.

CUBAN SKETCHES, by James W. Steele. The author says these sketches were made while the writer was chiefly occupied in collecting and distributing the princely income of an United States Consul and embody the "recollections and conclusions, in brief, of some years' residence: the results of having slept in the Cuban bed, and eaten at the Cuban table, and of having been much sought after by the tropical mosquito." Cloth, 220 pages, price $1 50.

SIR RICHARD WHITTINGTON, Lord Mayor, of London, one of "The New Plutarch Series," by Walter Besant and James Rice. This is a most interesting account, from the most authentic sources, of the famous Whittington, who with his famous cat, has for generations furnished a theme for nursery legends. Cloth, 217 pages, price $1 00.

THE HERALD OF PRAISE, by L. O. Emerson, and published by Oliver Ditson & Co., of Boston. It includes a compact chart or description of Musical Notation, a multitude of new and fresh easy vocal pieces, sacred and secular, for practice of the notes; this part, in fact, constituting an acceptable easy Glee and Chorus book, a grand collection of new Hymn Tunes and Anthems, and a number of well chosen pieces for concerts. Price $1; for sale by G. S. Shaby.

The Boston Post, on its Fiftieth Birthday mourns over the condition of things "When John D. Long gets a plurality of 2,000 in the city of Boston."

The Boston Post published a four-page supplement Wednesday, giving an interesting review of fifty years of its existence.

An Interesting Account! Stone in the Bladder Expelled by Using Dr. Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy."

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Dutchess Co., N. Y., the son of Mr. D. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was, like his father, afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. On the appearance of the disease the father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of "Kennedy's Favorite Remedy," which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried "Favorite Remedy" at a venture. After two weeks' use of it he passed a stone 1 of an inch long and of the thickness of a pipe-stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of the return of the trouble. Hero is a sick man healed. What better results could have been expected? What greater benefit could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough! Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to forfeit or imperil, that the "Favorite Remedy" does invigorate the Blood, cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder complaints, as well as all those diseases and weaknesses peculiar to females. ILLUSTRATED LECTURES ON THE WAR. —BY— GEN'L LUTHER STEPHENSON, JR. —WITH— Stereopticon Views.

These lectures are graphic accounts of three great battles given by a soldier who not only participated in them, but who possesses, in a unique degree, the power to vividly describe the scenes, bringing them directly to the understanding of the hearer. As an eloquent and interesting speaker, excellent judges place Gen. Stephenson in the front rank among our platform orators. The lectures are illustrated by numerous beautiful and interesting pictures thrown upon a screen with a stereopticon. Scenes in battle, noted localities and portraits of prominent generals, follow each other in rapid succession as the lecture proceeds, affording an entertainment at once beautiful and instructive.

DEATH OF THE OLDEST CONVICT IN THE MAINE STATE PRISON.

THOMASTON, Nov. 9. This forenoon, ...n Phillips, the oldest convict in the ...ne State Prison, died, upwards of ninety-two years of age. He has a wife and children living in Boston. He had passed thirty-seven years of his life in prison. He was noted as being the man who played a huge joke at one time on the warden of the Massachusetts State Prison. He told a large story about having a large sum of money buried in that State and the warden took him out to dig for the money. After working a while Phillips asked for a ...t, when the officers got into the hole to ... Then he suddenly shoved the warden ... and kicking sand into their eyes, ... away.

THE GUITEAU CASE.

Star Route Frauds.

GENERAL NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. In the Criminal ... to-day, Mr. Scoville stated that the warden of the prison, on his application to ... yesterday, did not remember taking a letter from Guiteau directed to him, ...ville, and which he put into the hands of the District Attorney. The warden denied to make any affidavit to that effect, apologized to the Court for the trouble, ... stated that he would call it up on the ...

Attorney Corkhill responded, denying most emphatically that he had ever received from Warden Crocker or any one ... any letter from Guiteau to Scoville. He had extended every professional and personal courtesy to Mr. Scoville, realizing that he was struggling at a great disadvantage and he wondered that he should make such a charge. He had requested Warden Crocker to be in Court this morning and he would like to ask him a question under oath. Mr. Scoville thought it would be fairer to wait until the trial was ... that a cross examination would be possible.

The Court thought the matter had gone far enough, but Mr. Corkhill insisted that the warden should be sworn. Judge Cox administered the oath and Mr. Corkhill asked the warden whether he ever delivered to him a letter addressed to Scoville by Guiteau.

"I never did" was the reply.

"Do you want to ask him any questions Mr. Scoville?" said the Judge.

"No," said Scoville. "We are not trying the Guiteau case yet." Here the matter dropped.

The Star Route Fraud.

The closing argument in behalf of the defence in the Star Route case was made by Mr. Totten. His position was that no criminal information could be filed in the District of Columbia. Criminal proceedings of this kind were not authorized by law and it was contrary to the practice of many years.

FALL OF A TENEMENT HOUSE.

A Number of Persons Killed and Injured.

THE DISASTER CAUSED BY A WEAK FOUNDATION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. At seven o'clock this morning a three story tenement house on the south east corner of South Fifth Avenue and Grand street, fell in, burying the occupants in the ruins. The Fire Department was summoned and with the assistance of citizens extricated five victims. The life of two was extinct and others were seriously injured. How many were in the building is not yet known.

The work of removing the debris is being pushed with all speed.

The ground floor was occupied by Holland & O'Brien as a liquor store, and the upper portion by tenants. After the debris was cleared away, Mary Bold, 20 years old and John Rudolph, with his four children were taken out but slightly injured. Mary Savill was seriously, if not fatally, injured. All of them were sent to St. Vincent's Hospital. Half an hour later the firemen found the dead bodies of Francis Knoup, 48 years old, and his son, who was taken out. Catharine Bader was was also taken out so seriously injured that she must die.

The house was a three-story brick structure with attic, owned by Mr. O'Brien, who kept a liquor saloon on the ground floor. Two years ago he put up an extension without strengthening the foundations and this proved to be too much weight for the weak understructure. Up to 11 o'clock two dead bodies had been taken out. They were Mrs. Francis Knoup, aged 48, and her son John, aged 14, Mrs. Rudolph, a married woman, aged 45, and the body of a little girl, aged 7 years, wrapped in a blanket, whose name is not ascertained.

During the search for bodies, a fireman named John Gillespie fell and broke his right ankle. The building seems to have fallen without warning and it is strange that all within it were not crushed to death. An immense crowd has been all day viewing the scene. The coroner will hold an inquest this afternoon.

Seven Bodies Recovered.

The firemen at work at the fallen building on Grand street have thus far removed seven bodies from the ruins and it is believed others are still buried.

A Madison, Ind., despatch says: Mrs. Sarah Mosely died yesterday, aged 111.

THE ELECTIONS.

THIS ONE IS FOR VIRGINIA

The Solid South Broken.

Cameron Handsomely Elected.

Anti Bourbon Majority In The Assembly.

The Result In New York Very Close.

Carr Elected Secretary of State.

Minnesota and Wisconsin Republican.

OTHER RETURNS.

NEW YORK.

COMMENTS OF THE PRESS WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The Times Claims a Small Republican Majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. The Times this morning says. An unusually light vote was polled in this State yesterday, outside of large cities. Returns thus far show that the Republican State ticket, with the exception of Husted for State Treasurer, is elected by a small majority, probably not more than 6000 or 8000. The result as regards the Legislature is in doubt. The latest returns indicating the Senate is tied and that the Assembly stands 65 Republicans to 63 Democrats. The election of Talcott and Gibbs, Republican candidates for the Senate in this city, is in doubt. But they are counted as successful in the above estimate.

The Sun's Estimate

The Sun estimates the State as Democratic by 10,000 majority and that 18 Democratic and 14 Republican Senators are elected; 67 Democratic and 61 Republican Assemblymen are elected. Flower's majority over Astor for Congress is 2 600.

The Sun's later figures reduce its estimates from 10,000 Democratic majority to a very close election. It says most of the results are in doubt. It looks like a general destruction of the Republican party of this State. The Democracy of New York were successful in the elections yesterday and the whole State administration so far as it can be influenced by these elections will now pass into Democratic hands. The Democratic State ticket headed by William Purcell for Secretary of State, has received a majority of the people's votes, and the indications just now are that both branches of the Legislature also have passed from the Republican to the Democratic party.

The Herald Says the Result is Doubtful.

The Herald says the State is somewhat in doubt, owing to imperfect returns, but the latest indications are that the Democrats have a small majority, the latest estimate being 5,000. Carr, Republican candidate for Secretary of State, seems to have run ahead of his ticket so well that the full returns may prove his election.

As to the State Senate the Democrats have made considerable gains; but it is doubtful whether they will have a majority. The Assembly appears to have been secured by the Republicans again.

In this city bossism encountered another Waterloo. Calvin, Tammany candidate for Surrogate, was ignominously defeated by Rollins, the Republican. McKeon is District Attorney by an overwhelming majority. The indications are that the regular Democrats have secured six of the district aldermen, the Republicans securing seven and Tammany only three. The indications are that the Republicans succeeded in electing their Marine Court Judges. Most of the Democratic candidates for Civil Justices have been elected.

The World Confident.

The World says: Our despatches leave no doubt of the most sweeping victory which the Democrats have won in this State for ten years. Their only regret must be that a Governor as well as a Legislature was not elected this year so that the Democratic party might assume full control and accept the full responsibility of the government of the State.

The Star.

The Star, Tammany organ, says the State is in doubt, but if saved to the Democrats it is saved by the devotion of old Tammany in this city.

Coming Down.

ALBANY, Nov. 9. The Argus at noon to-day claimed the election of the Democratic State ticket by 2,000 majority, though owing to Carr running ahead of his ticket he may be elected. They say the Senate counting Talcott in New York as elected, is a tie and the Assembly is in doubt.

The Evening Journal Claims the State Republican.

The Evening Journal editors at noon say the Senate was a tie and the Assembly has two Republican majority. They claim the election of Carr by about 2 000 majority and consider the remainder of the Republican State ticket, except Husted, as probably elected. Republican Congressmen in the 23d and 27th districts are elected.

The Victory in Brooklyn Makes the Democrats Feel Very Blue.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. For some unexplained reason the canvass was very slow in Brooklyn last night, or at least this morning, the figures being incomplete at daylight. The Democrats are surprised and depressed at the result, which has deprived them of a large amount of patronage and may entail the loss of the State to that party next year. The Republicans have elected the Mayor, Sheriff, Supervisor at large and one Senator from the third Senatorial District. They have reduced the Democratic majority on the State ticket to about 1000, when it was claimed that it would be eight thousand at least. The vote for Mayor is as follows: Seth Low, Republican, 45,484; James Howell, Democrat, 40,037. Vote for Sheriff as follows: Lewis Stegemon, Republican, 46,058; Francis White, Democrat, 40,640.

The Republican Committee Now Claim the State.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. Secretary Vroom, of the Republican State Central Committee, states: "From the best estimate which we can make the Republicans have carried the State by at least 5000. The Legislature will be very close. We estimate that the Senate will be a tie—16 Republicans and 16 Democrats, and the Assembly 68 Republicans and 60 Democrats.

Republican Aldermen and Supervisors

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. The Brooklyn Eagle says the Board of Aldermen, now Democratic, have been carried by the Republicans. The same is true of the Board of Supervisors.

Carr Elected Secretary of State.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. The World gives the Democrats two majority in the Senate, six majority in the House, and claims the election of the State officers by majorities from two thousand to twenty thousand.

The Tribune says Carr's majority is 8-700; that the Senate will stand two majority for the Democrats and four Democratic majority in the House.

The Sun says that Carr is probably elected by about 4,000 plurality over Purcell.

VIRGINIA.

Republican Gains.

RICHMOND, Nov. 9. Further returns have reduced the Democratic gains in the Legislature 11, which leaves them 4 short of a majority on joint ballot. Gubernatorial returns are too meagre to justify a positive statement as to the election of either Daniel or Cameron. The Readjusters claim their figures insure the election of Cameron from to 12,000 to 15,000 majority.

Cameron's Election Conceded.

RICHMOND, Nov. 9. The State Democratic newspapers says Cameron is probably elected by 5000 majority.

Celebrating the Bourbon Defeat.

RICHMOND, Nov. 9. Late returns still farther reduce the Democratic gains in the Legislature, and there is now no hope of recovering the lost ground in the counties to hear from. Pretty full returns from over half the State indicate that Cameron is elected and the headquarters have a good working majority on a joint ballot in the Legislature. At the Readjusters' headquarters they claim the election of the State ticket by not less than 15 000, and a majority in the Legislature of 17 to 20 on joint ballot. They are exceedingly jubilant to night, marching through the streets with bands and firing cannon.

A Complete Victory.

RICHMOND, Nov 9 The Whig (Readjuster) says Col. Cameron and our whole State ticket is certainly elected by a majority of not less that 12,000 We have carried both branches of the Assembly by a joint majority exceeding that of the last Legislature

NEW JERSEY.

The Republicans Have a Majority on Joint Ballot in the Legislature.

TRENTON, Nov 9. The result in New Jersey is as follows Out of eight Senators elected the Republicans elect four and the Democrats four. The Senate stands 12 Republicans and 9 Democrats. The House 30 Republicans and 30 Democrats, leaving the Republicans a majority of 3 on joint ballot.

MINNESOTA.

A Falling Off

CHICAGO, Nov. 9 A special to the Times from St. Paul, Minn, says from the best data attainable it appears that Hubbard has run behind his ticket in the northern part of the State, but made it up largely in the southern part where Donnell's friends rallied to his support. Gen. Bader, as Railroad Commissioner, falls behind here. Judge Vanderburgh has been scratched on account of a bargain by which he was nominated, and Greenleaf Clark, Democrat, has a a large vote. The vote of the State will show a falling off of 30 per cent more largely from the Republicans, say two to one. In St. Paul, the Democratic ticket is doubtless elected with the exception of State Treasurer Rice and Coroner Davenport, who will probably be returned on their personal popularity. The returns are too meagre to estimate on the fate of the Constitutional election.

Republican Majority from 15,000 to 20,000.

The Tribune's St. Paul despatch says Good judges estimate the Republican majority at from 15,000 to 20 000, except in cases of Vanderburgh (S. C Judge) and Baker (R. R. Commissioner) who have been elected by a reduced majority. Johnson, Democrat, for Governor, and Clark for Judge ran largely ahead of their ticket in St Paul, and about half of each county ticket will be elected, though the Democrats claim the entire ticket. There was a light vote in Minneapolis, but the Republican county ticket is elected by a reduced majority. No returns have been received to indicate the result of the vote to set aside the public lands for the payment of railway bonds. The indications are that the falling off of the vote from last year is 40 per cent. of which the Republicans lose 25, reducing considerably the Republican majority from last year.

MISSISSIPPI.

As Usual.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 9 Telegrams from 19 counties in Mississippi show that the Democrats have carried them all except Madison County, where the Fusion gains are about 400. Every indication points to the success of the Democratic State ticket by 15,000 to 20,000 majority.

CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, Nov. 9 The Republicans have elected ten of the fourteen Senators voted for yesterday, giving them 17 out of 24 Senators. The House stands: Republicans, 99, Democrats, 1, Greenbackers, 119 Last year Republicans, 166, Democrats, 80, Greenbackers, 1.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9. The revised estimates from all but five counties give Bailey, Republican, for State Treasurer 6,285 plurality.

MARYLAND.

Republican Victory.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 9. The Republicans have gained an unexpected victory in several Democratic counties, the Senate standing at present estimate, 16 Democrats and 10 Republicans. In the last Senate there were 7 Republicans and 19 Democrats. Based on the same estimate, the House stands 59 Democrats and 32 Republicans. They have also elected Chief Judge and Associated Judge in the 7th Judicial District in Southard, the home of United States Senator Gorman, where the contest was more exciting than in any other county, there being an independent Democratic and regular Democratic ticket.

WISCONSIN.

Still Republican.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 9. One hundred and ninety-one towns and cities, including Milwaukee and embracing two-fifths of the State, with the interior Republican precincts to hear from, give a net Democratic gain of 8293. The Republican vote based on the last Gubernatorial election to overcome is 23 550. The Democratic State Central Committee claim a good show to carry the State and claim State Treasurer Falk positively.

The Republican State Central Committee is positive of the election of the entire State ticket by two to five thousand. Private advices from prominent Republicans in the interior seems to assure the success of the Republican ticket.

Republican Success Assured.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 9. Further returns insure the election of the Republican State ticket and the plurality is estimated not less than 6,000.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

A Deputation to Visit the President

BOSTON, Nov. 9. The Secretary of the Cambridge Civil Service Reform Association has received a letter from the Central Civil Service Reform League, informing him of a resolve by the Committee to send a deputation to wait upon President Arthur, soon after the assembling of Congress in regular session, and inviting the Cambridge Association to add one or more delegates. The Central Committee of the League as now constituted will be the nucleus of the deputation which will be increased, it is expected, by delegates from many of the prominent Civil service Associations throughout the country. The movement designed is not only to represent to the President the views of the associations regarding civil service, but particularly to impress the public with the nature and importance of this reform. Carl Schurz has been secured by the Cambridge Association to lecture in that city.

THE WEATHER.

(WAR DEP'T, OFFICE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, Washington, D. C., Nov. 10—1 A. M.)

Indications.

For New England: Much colder and generally fair weather; northerly to westerly winds and rising barometer.

Honoring the American People.

CELEBRATION IN LONDON.

LONDON, Nov. 9 The new Lord Mayor went in solemn procession to Guildhall with the usual ancient display, which drew an immense crowd of spectators, and with a modern innovation in the programme with the object of honoring the American people, which was received with great enthusiasm.

The stars and stripes were carried in the procession preceded by the drum and fife band of the 1th battalion of the city of London. After a short interval, came the band from the training ship War Spite, playing "Yankee Doodle." The American flag, as it came in view, was received with general clapping of hands and was cheered by the spectators. The same honor was not conspicuously rendered to any other feature of the procession, except when the coaches of the new and old Mayors passed by. There was a striking demonstration as the procession passed the managing office of the United States Cable Co. on Broad street. Four young ladies waived the American flag from the windows as the Banner of the Free went by, and there was loud and continued applause.

A great demonstration was made at the American Exchange on the Strand. Three hundred ladies waived the American colors from balconies. Among the decorations throughout the city the American flag was conspicuous. There was enthusiastic cheering in the Palace yard as the American banner entered, escorted by a guard of honor with fixed bayonets. As it passed the band played "Hail Columbia."

Speech by Gladstone.

At the Lord Mayor's banquet to-night, Mr. Gladstone said I can discern signs of improvement in Ireland. One question at least has been decided. The people are determined to make a full trial of the land act. I hold in my hand very significant proof of the treatment to which the Irish have been subjected by their so called friends. It is a notice proceeding from high authority stating that anybody paying rent before such persons are released, without the consent of the Land League, will be boycotted. Referring to the next session of Parliament, Gladstone said it will be an early and urgent demand on the wisdom of Parliament to consider effective measures for meeting the great evil of the obstruction which has presented itself.

THE LATE PRESIDENT'S FAMILY.

Letter From Mrs. Garfield.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9. Cyrus W. Field has received the following letter from Mrs. James A. Garfield

MENTOR, Nov 7, 1881.

Dear friend Your letter of October 20th is received giving me a final statement regarding the fund for Gen. Garfield's family, so kindly supervised by you. As I have heretofore made only a verbal acknowledgement, I now wish formally to communicate to you, and through you to all who have contributed to it, my thanks for this generous testimony as an expression of the high esteem in which my husband was held, and as a tribute to his memory. My children join me in this gratitude and desire that as we accept this trust in their father's name, we may be able to use it in a manner worthy of him, and satisfactory to those by whom it has been bestowed. With sentiments of regard and with sincere regards to you, my dear friend, I remain very truly yours,

IRELAND.

A Terrible Accident

BROCKTON, Nov. 9. Fred Harleburg, aged twenty, fireman on the switch engine of the Old Colony Railway, was killed this afternoon, while shackling cars. His head was caught between a car and the projecting timber with which the following car was loaded and crushed to a jelly. He was unmarried and resided in South Abington.

The Newark Bank Matter

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9 Comptroller of Currency Knox has received no further reports from the Newark Bank. He said this morning that the amount which will be paid to the depositors depends to a great extent upon the amount received from Nugent, who is reported to have upwards of a million dollars worth of real estate A great portion of this amount Comptroller Knox thinks will be recovered.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES

A Tucson despatch says, Bill Lin...berg and Sandy King, two members of the noted Cowboy gang, were hung in the jail by a mob yesterday.

Gen. Sheridan's official report reiterates the former statements that the army is too small and advises that the consent of the Mexican government be obtained for our troops to cross the line and catch the free booters

FOREIGN NEWS.

FUNERAL OF MRS JAMES F. RAWSON. The last sad rites over the remains of Mrs. James F. Rawson were performed yesterday afternoon at the family residence on Union street. The very impressive and solemn services were conducted by the Rev. S. J. Stewart, who, after reading selections of an appropriate character, dwelt in tender and touching terms, upon the virtues, the amiable disposition, the motherly affection, the wifely devotion, and the benevolent nature, that in such a marked degree characterized the life of the deceased. The Unitarian choir rendered some beautifully appropriate selections. The floral offerings were most elaborate and beautiful beyond description. At the head of the casket was a pillow of choicest flowers in which was wrought the word "Mother." At the foot, was a similar design bearing the word "Sleep." A magnificent broken column, surrounded by a wealth of crosses, crowns, wreaths, crescents and mounds of rare and beautiful flowers, stood near the casket. The arrangements were under the charge of Gen. Charles W. Roberts. The bearers were Judge Peters, I. M. Carrier, Wm. H. Strickland, Joseph Snow, E. M. Hersey and Ruel Smith. The attendance was very large.

GRAND LAKE STREAM. Mr. John Martin, now employed at Grand Lake Stream, writes as follows. The good citizens of this land locked locality are in daily receipt of your valuable paper and we are very desirous that the outside world should get a peep at some of its peculiarities The business carried on here is the mammoth tannery of Messrs. F. Shaw & Bros, which constantly employes from one to three hundred men about the works, and up and down the lakes. These men with their families represent several nationalities. A movement was made in June last to form a temperance lodge and forty persons formed a lodge and received a charter under the name of the Grand Lake Lodge, No. 358, and were duly organized. The lodge has been rapidly increasing from that date to this until it has a membership of about 116 and an average attendance of 75. The lodge thus far has been the means of revolutionizing the whole village, bringing strangers together in social communion and dispelling all rum traffic and drinking in the precincts. The election of officers occurred Saturday, Oct 29th, and last Saturday evening the following were installed, by W. H. Elsemore, D. G. W. C. T., for the next ensuing quarter J. D. Shepherd, W. C. THE ASSAULT CASE

Lewis Held in $2,000

The trial of Charles R. Lewis for assaulting John Nolan was concluded in the Police Court yesterday. Mr. Smith, counsel for the defence, introduced a number of witnesses during the morning, who testified to the good character of Lewis and that he was on the boat by nine o'clock the night of the assault.

One colored man who was on watch in the cabin of the boat that night, until twelve o'clock, testified that he saw Lewis come down and go to bed at about nine o'clock. Another testified that it is his duty to gather up the linen, and when he made his rounds on the night in question, he was unable to get that used by Lewis, as he was in bed and asleep at the time. Several of the officers of the boat testified to the good character of the respondent, saying that he was a temperate, industrious and faithful waiter.

After all the testimony was in the court adjourned until afternoon, when the case was argued by the counsel. At the conclusion of these arguments, His Honor Judge Brett decided that there was "probable cause" and bound the prisoner over to appear at the high court, in the sum of $2,000. Lewis was committed to jail for the present, and it is doubtful if he succeeds in furnishing securities.

AMUSEMENTS

The Grayson Opera Company.

None who witnessed the superior and complete representation of "Mascot" by the Grayson Opera Company last evening but must have regretted that so many of our amusement-loving citizens should have been deterred from attending by the very disagreeable weather. Mrs. Carter as "Bettina" fairly captured the audience by the brilliancy and sweetness of her singing and the sprightliness of her acting. In her rendition of the "Skylark" her vocal powers were most effectively displayed, and she was most enthusiastically encored. The duet, "When I Behold," by Mrs. Carter and Mr. J. T. Dalton, was also received with the most genuine marks of approval, the audience demanding a repetition. Miss Grayson as "Flametta" sang with much spirit, and performed her part very acceptably. Mr. Henry Molten was an amusing "Prince Frederick" and Mr. Wallace Allen was very good as "Rocco." Mr. Dalton appeared to win much favor as "Pippo," and Mr. Sidney Smith as "Lorenzo" gave evidence that he was a singer of no mean order. The opera of "Mascot" has been presented in this city before, but there was so much in its representation last night that was new,—there was such a faithfulness in minor matters,—as to give to it all the freshness and novelty of a new opera. The "Court Physician" was very successfully essayed by Mr. A. W. Maflin, who during the evening gave a most marvellous exhibition of grotesque dancing. All the parts were well taken. A very pleasing feature was introduced in the second act, being the beating of "Bettina's" train by a pert little fellow who filled the office of page with such an air of consequence as to win the hearty applause of the audience. The costumes were elegant. In a word, it was a delightful opera, splendidly presented to a highly pleased audience.

"Patience," To Night.

This evening will be presented the latest work of Messrs. Gilbert and Sullivan, entitled "Patience, or Bunthorne's Bride." The opera is a musical extravaganza to fully appreciate which a person should have a thorough knowledge of the "esthetic craze" which has taken possession of society in London and which appears to be gaining a foothold in this country. The opera will be presented with the superb costumes appropriate to the piece. We shall be mistaken if the hall is not filled to-night.

East Corinth Academy.

Mr. Editor. The fall term of East Corinth Academy closed with the usual exhibition, Friday evening, presenting the following programme Song, Lizzie Brackett, declamation, "Bunker Hill," F. C McGuier; declamation, "I went to London," R. C. Brown; reading, "The Vesper Song," Clemtina M. Tate, declamation, "Who killed Tom Roper," W. W. Worth, declamation, "William Tell," R. S. Brown, song, Gene Hutchinson; declamation, "Cynic," Fred Tibbetts; declamation, "The True Glory of a Nation," H. F. Farrar, declamation, "Seeing the Eclipse," A. P. Mayo; recitation, "The Sisters," Rose Porter, declamation, "Death of Gaudentis," Edward Moran, declamation, "Thyme and Winter," Sherman Page, dialogue, "The Country Aunts," ——, recitation, "The Last Hymn," Bertie Kingsbury; declamation, "A. Ward on Woman's Rights," W. J. Bailey, song, "Larboard Watch, Ahoy," McKenney and Drummond.

"The Vesper Song" was very finely read by Miss Tate, and the recitation of "The Sisters," by Miss Porter, was most charming, and the rendering of "The Last Hymn," by Miss Kingsbury, was almost perfection. The singing was excellent and added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Mr. Fletcher, Preceptor, presided, and Miss Mathews, Preceptress, added her assistance, and under their skillful management everything went on as smoothly as clock work, without a break from beginning to end. The hall was well filled with the parents and friends of the students, all highly interested and pleased with the exercises. In closing, Mr. Fletcher made a very neat speech in the course of which he gave some very appropriate and sound advice to both students and parents, all being received in the kindly spirit in which it was given. This makes the twelfth term Mr. Fletcher has had charge of the Institution and the sixth that Miss Mathews has been connected with it as Preceptress, and the present high standing of the Institution is largely due to their efforts in its behalf.
